Smith, the ceretary of the National Horse Show sociation, gives most credit to the ladies committee, of which Mrs. Arthur Iselin is chairman. "Its members worked hard and well," he mid, "and their efforts brought many thousands of dollars to the fund." Mr. Smith said that next year's exhibition will be held on the same dates and as it will be held on the anniver-cary of the signing of the armietice, it will be a "Victory Horse Show," with the presence of American and allied efficers now in service to add to the celebration an old time military flavor. Preece and Collins Go to Hospital, A. Johnson Bruised-Ensor Wins Two.

Special Despatch to Tan Sex. BALTIMORE, Nov. 15 .- Three horses fell during the running of the first race at the Bowle track to-day. Quentin Preece had his collar bone broken, Arthur Collins was cut in the face and hurt internally and A. Johnson escaped with cuts and bruises. Preece and Collins were taken to a hospital in Washington. The track physician thought that Collins was hurt severely. Collins had the mount on Marie Connell, Johnson was on Syrdaria and Preece had the leg up on Dr. Davis, Ensor again rode two winners, Pelario and Poultney, and his followers are reaping a harvest. Belario lead all the way. Poultney was nearly knocked down at the start and it was only by careful and patient riding that Ensor
